April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month

April marks the 29th anniversary of National Child Abuse Prevention Month. The LampLighter Movement is an international movement for incest and child sexual abuse recovery. During their Blue Ribbon campaign, they ask that you wear a Blue Ribbon to heighten awareness of child abuse.

Marjorie McKinnon is the founder of the LampLighter Movement. Her program, REPAIR, is a six-step recovery program. It is the result of several years of note-taking, journalizing, meditation, and piecing together parts of her own life, as well as conversations with other incest survivors across the country.

Marjorie is the author of REPAIR Your Life: A Program for Recovery from Incest & Childhood Sexual Abuse, REPAIR For Kids, REPAIR For Toddlers and It's Your Choice! Decisions That Will Change Your Life.

Show your support during National Child Abuse Prevention Month by wearing a Blue Ribbon during the month of April. You can get your Blue Ribbon right here at the Cottonwood Public Library. Blue Ribbons are provided for you by the LampLighter Movement. On their 30th anniversary next year, they hope to have the whole country involved in the Blue Ribbon Campaign.
